

Musinc Media Statement

Musinc staff may take photos, videos and recordings as part of this activity, which may be used for the promotion of the Musinc programme and Middlesbrough Town Hall in the following ways:

- In printed materials (for example leaflets)
- On Musinc's website, Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn and any other social media sites
- In the media (for example newspapers or TV news)

With permission, Musinc may also share photographs, video or audio recordings with our external funders or partners, which they may then share as part of their own promotions.

All media taken as part of this activity is sent to the Musinc office team, stored securely by Musinc and Middlesbrough Borough Council and deleted from the device used to collect the material. You can read Musinc's full privacy policy here: <https://musinc.org.uk/about-us/musinc-policies-page/privacy/>

Please note that all persons have the right to object to being photographed, filmed, and/or recorded.

If you wish to opt out of photos, videos, and/or recordings please do the following:

For activities taking place at Middlesbrough Town Hall:

- Please let the musicians leading your session know if you object to photos, videos and/or audio recordings.
- All participants should complete the activity registration form, which asks about media consent. If you opt out on this form the project coordinator will inform the musicians leading your session.

For activities taking place at a partner organisation:

- Please let the musicians leading your session know if you object to photos, videos and/or recordings.
- Staff at partner organisations should inform the musicians leading the sessions if any of the participants have not given media permissions.
